There are 2 dogs on the property. They were lying inside the house. I asked the owner what happened. She said that her husband did hit one of the female dogs because she did pee inside the house. I asked her about the dog that was dead. She claimed that they only had these 2 dogs and the dog did not die that her husband did hit. Both the dogs that was there is in a fair condition. I spoke to the complainant and she said she thinks there was 3 dogs but she is not sure. She said the incident happened over the weekend and they did phone the police and they were there and said it is not there work the complainant must phone the SPCA. She said she would come back to me if she had more details. I also told her that they have the right to lay charges at the police.

Assign Inspector Tue 01-Mar-22 Re-Check Stephanie Fortuin

Re-check. Both the dogs are roaming free in the yard. They are both in a fair condition. I phoned the complainant again, she still did not have any new information. Will re-check again.
