Comments: ssign Inspector Warnings-Issued
Jody was not at home when I did the inspection. I spoke to his wife, Charity. The dog is thin and Charity told me that the dog was at the Vet last week, but she told me that the Vet report is with her husband. She said that the dog was sick and is now recovering.
Water and shelter observed.
The dog is on a long chain with a collar. Charity told me that they chain the dog because there is no fencing on the property.
I left a warning advising Jody to contact me.

Jody contacted me and informed me that he did take the dog to the Vet and he also told me that he de-wormed the dog.
I advised Jody to leave the Vet report with his wife so that I can see it.

There was no people at home. I did see the Pitbull on a +- 6 meter long chain with a collar. Water and shelter is also available.
I did not see the dog before, so I can't tell if his body condition has improved.
Will do a re-check.
