General Report Comments: I saw 1 male Maltese x outside the yard walking around the house and I saw that the dog has a skin problem and I spoke to the owner of the dog and she said that she bought a sensitive skin shampoo for the dog but she is lazy to wash the dog she promised to wash the dog from now going forward. Will recheck if she has started washing the dog. Water and shelter was observed and the body condition of the dog is not acceptable because of the skin.
