Dear Mr Brink,

Thank you for your email.

We received a complaint regarding a Jack Russell dog that was bitten by a Pitbull and according to the complainant the dog did not receive veterinary care.

Our Inspector went to do an inspection and the Jack Russell dog did have a wound. It was not a deep wound and was treated by the time that the inspector did the inspection.

She did a recheck on two occasions to ensure that the wound healed completely.

We trust this answers your question.

With best regards,
