Mitzie told me that she has spoken to Naomi the lady who is feeding the feral cats at Skilliepark in Dwarskersbos, and that she is will to do an affidavit in which she will name the suspect who they think is poisoning the cats. I called Naomi and she told me that she is not willing to do an affidavit because they are suspecting three individuals but they have no proof whatsoever. I told Naomi that in order for us to open a case we need to have a suspect although we know that the cats are being poisoned, we don't have any proof other than hear say. Naomi understood and told me that she will keep an eye on the remaining cats. Nfa until further notice.
