General Report Comments: There was no people at this address but the three dogs on the property are all healthy. One neighbor who introduced herself as Idah informed me that she thinks that the dog in question is a black dog that is always at this address gate but she doesn't know the owner. The dog that she showed me is male black boarboel and is thin. She surrendered the dog. I phoned the complainant and he informed me that Joey is the one who complained and that he will give me a call.
