General Report Comments: When I arrived at the property Mr Plaatjies allowed me access. The dog is still on a short chain confined space. My warning was not adhered to. They do not want to move the dog as they hang their washing at the other side and they cannot put it on a runner chain as Mr Plaatjies claims that the other occupants are scared to walk past him. I advised him that that still does not make it legal to tie a dog like that and that he can sign over the dog to the SPCA. He said it is not his dog it is his stepson's dog called Laren.
