General Report Comments: I went to the farm Botterkloof plaas on the R45 approximately 20km outside of Malmesbury. I contacted Tiaan White and entered the farm. The horses are in a very good condition. I explained to Mr White why I was there. Mr White advised me that he was under the impression that the issue was sorted out as the lady from the SPCA told him that she will not be issuing him with a warning as he did comply to her request. I gave Mr White a copy of the SANS code and referred him to the highlighted part - 3.2.3 No livestock shall be thrown or dropped to the ground. No livestock shall be allowed to jump from the vehicle onto the ground. He told me that he now understands and will adhere. I gave him a warning nr W5911. He refused to sign the warning because according to him the inspector at the saleyard said she will not give him a warning because he complied. NFA until further notice.
