General Report Comments: The son did not take the dogs to the mobile clinic for free treatment. There was no dog food and no treatment for the skin problem. She claimed that she gave a deworming tablet but could not say what and had no proof. I again advised her that if she cannot afford to look after the dog and give it proper treatment that she can surrender the animals to the SPCA. She refused and said she will get treatment in the week. I issued another warning nr W4520
