CHECKLISTS

General Report Comments: I went to SAPS and met with the station commander Captian Kim Whitton. I advised her that SAPS must use 2.1.J of the Animals protection act to lay charges if they find the suspects . Caption Whitton says that they will keep everything on record and if they need our input she will make contact with us as there are no clear suspects at the moment. Until they contact us with anything else this case is NFA.
