General Report Comments: There was no people at this property and there is no house number as the house is isolated in Tortelduif street. Both dogs are in a fair and acceptable body condition. There was no water available for the dogs and the dogs are using a makeshift dog kennel. The property is not fenced at all and the complainant said that the dogs are chasing people in the street and I advised the complainant to contact the local law enforcement. The living environment is clean. I issued a Notice to comply and I left it on the door.
