General Report Comments: I spoke to Charmaine owner of the dog that claims her dog was poison. She said her dog got very sick she spoke to some of the neighbors that claimed there dog's also had the same symptoms. Only one of the owner's took there dog to a vet that confirmed it was poison. The neighborhood feels that it is one person poisonous there animals but they don't have proof. All of the dog's are still alive. She said they are going to put cameras outside to see if they can find proof of who is poisoning the animals in the neighborhood. I advised her if they have proof they can lay charges at the police station. Nfa
