General Report Comments: I went to do an inspection at the Rainbow broiler breeder farm. This breeding farm is different then the laying farms because here they have roosters with the hens to fertilize the eggs. The chickens on this farm is loose in the chicken house and not in cages as with the laying farms. Animals that I have observe is in acceptable conditions. Water,food and shelter is provided. No sick,injured or dead animals was observed. Attached is a checklist that I have completed. Will recheck.
