General Report Comments: Magdalene insisted that Basie was going to take the dog to the vet and I informed her that it was her dog so the responsibility of looking after the dog is hers as well. I informed her that the dog was not supposed to be in the streets in the first place. I also informed her that the fact that the dog was injured way before the funeral which Basie claimed to have attended shows that he doesn't prioritize the welfare of the dog. I then told her that the SPCA will lay charges of animal cruelty against her not Basie. She then decided to surrender the dog named Paco. There is no animals left on the property
