General Report Comments: Attie Van Schoor the owner of the farm gave me access to the farm . I went with Attie to the enclosures where the calves are kept. I saw 3x Jersey calves. The 2x calves was in enclosures that's about 3mx3m and the 1x calves was kept in a small steel cage. I asked Attie to take the calves out of the enclosure because it is to small. There was milk in the buckets and some sort of grain feed in the other buckets. The living conditions of the calves is not acceptable. The 3x calves are also underweight. While doing an inspection Attie went to the barn to go get a bottle and bottle fed the calves. We then went to check on the other animals on the farm . The sheep and the other cattle and calves is in acceptable conditions. I issued a warning to provide the 3x calves with adequate milk,adequate food and to provide potable fresh water on a daily basis. Will follow up.
