

INSPECTOR NOTE

|              |                 |
|--------------|-----------------|
| Building:    | DOGS & ALL      |
| Street:      |                 |
| Suburb:      | DARLING         |
| Postal Code: |                 |
| Date:        | 2024-05-10      |
| Time:        | 10:00           |
| Inspector:   | JAMESON OCTOBER |

---

|                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|-----------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Type:           | CASE DISCUSSION NOTE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Follow-Up Date: | 2024-05-17                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Comments:       | Did not see the Dogs And All vechile when I was about to leave Darling . I contacted Coenraad and asked him if the person who has the Rottweiler in the vechile must meet me somewhere in Darling. Coenraad said he will talk to him when he gets back from farm patrols. Will follow up. |
| Captured By:    | JAMESON OCTOBER 2024-04-16 11:54                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |