Comments:	Despite sending an email and trying to phone Natasha she is not responding and is not advising us where these animals are that she is posting on her Facebook page to ask for donations. I have advised the person Liz that sent the new Facebook post that we are not able to get the address from Natasha and that this is not the first time that she has been doing this. Unfortunately if we do not have an address there is nothing that we can do. Liz understands and said she also tried via whatsapp to get the information but is unable to. She will come back to us if she finds an address.
