

INSPECTOR NOTE

|              |                       |
|--------------|-----------------------|
| Building:    |                       |
| Street:      | 25 KENNELWORTH STREET |
| Suburb:      | LONGACRES             |
| Postal Code: |                       |
| Date:        | 2024-09-27            |
| Time:        | 10:00                 |
| Inspector:   | CARINA BODENSTEIN     |

---

|                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|-----------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Type:           | CALL RECORD - RECEIVED                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Follow-Up Date: | 2024-10-01                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Comments:       | I received a call from the owner advised that the vet was just by her and that the vet will email us the veterinary report. I thanked her for her prompt compliance and advised I will await the veterinary report. |
| Captured By:    | CARINA BODENSTEIN 2024-09-26 12:45                                                                                                                                                                                  |