General Report Comments: Upon arrival, I saw the dog in question on a long light chain, attached to a rope fixed to an unused kennel. The chain is approximately 13m long. The dog has a suitable collar. The dog has water, a large kennel, lots of shade from the house and a clean living environment.

The owners are still in compliance with the initial warning issued.

I also observed a pigeon loft with about 50 pigeons that come and go as they please as the one door is left open. The pigeons have water and food and the loft appears to be clean from where I was standing. There is also alot of perches in the loft.

In my opinion we can close this case, as there are no APA contraventions and no further need for intervention.
