CHECKLISTS

General Report Comments: Upon arrival, a man named Ricky came to the gate. I enquired from him regarding the dog belonging to Mr. Ocks. Ricky advised that Mr. Ocks is currently not at home but that he gave the dog away to an alleged white lady who came here a few weeks ago.

I asked Ricky if I can look at the back of the property to verify, he allowed me to have a look. I did not see the dog, or any sign of the dog.

I asked Ricky if he knows the white lady and where she perhaps resides, he advised that he does not know, and that he also thinks Mr. Ocks does not know as it was the first time he saw the lady. I asked Ricky how the dog looked and if the dog's ribs were still showing, Ricky advised that the dog recovered well since the veterinary visit and that there were no ribs seen anymore.

I tried to call Mr. Ocks to find out if he has an address, but it appears as if his phone is not working as my calls do not connect.

Since the dog is no longer on the property, with no current address - case to be closed.

If the complainant sees the dog on the property again and in a poor condition, she will let me know.
