General Report Comments: Upon arrival, it appeared as if no one was home as there was initially no response to my presense. Since the property has no gate, I entered the property to look for the dog.

Next to the house is a small alley way, 6m x 2m with a large kennel inside with the dog and food and water bowl.

The dog appears to have a severe skin condition, as hisback legs, tail, rump, neck and ears are scabby. The dog is also constantly scratching.

A neighbor, who identified herself as Daphne approached me and asked if she can assist. I asked if the owner is perhaps around and she responded that thw owner is at work. I asked if she can verify if the dog was taken for treatment, but she could mot confirm, however she could confirm that the owner applied some oitment on the dogs ears last night. This I could see, as some residue was visible on the ears and the rump. What was applied I could not co firm.

I proceeded to issue a warning (W4611) stating:

1. If not done already, the dog must be taken for veterinary assessment and possible treatment within 48 hrs.
2. To contact me.
