General Report Comments: Upon arrival, no one was home. As the property has no gate I entered the property and proceeded to the side alley where the dog is kept.

The dog has healed fully from the skin condition. The crust on the rump has dissapeared and the hair has grown back fully. The ears is also well healed and hair has begun to grow back. No more open, raw wounds.

I am happy to close this case as the dog has recovered well, as the owners are evidently still providing the dog with basic health care.
