General Report Comments: I did a recheck today and I found that the owner of the dogs has complied they removed all the old feaces around the property and they provided the dog big light tan male dog with water.
I arrived at the property and I saw 1 dog the male one still roaming around and the Boston terrier was not there. They removed the dog food and the water and they cleaned up the old feaces around.
Water was observed and the body condition of the male dog is acceptable will recheck after 3 days to see if the Boston terrier is back on the property.
