General Report Comments: Conwill stopped me and informed me that the owner of this dog no longer wants the dog and she chases the dog out of the property. He also informed me that the dog sleeps on the door step. He informed me that he is the one looking after the dog and I informed him that I will write the Notice to comply in his name and he agreed. He loaded the dog as the dog was now walking up and down in the streets. He also signed the admission form. There is no animals left on the property
