General Report Comments: There was no people at home. I saw 1x brown and white pitbull male lying in his kennel. Upon closer inspection I could see that the dog is underweight and has a skin problem. Water was observed. I issued a warning W5087 to get the dog to a vet because there is clearly something wrong with the dog because he did not want to get out of his kennel,I know that it is raining and cold but for me it was still strange that the dog did not react to me. Will follow up.
