General Report Comments: Upon arrival, no one appeared to be home as there was no response to my presence.

I saw the dog basking in the sun, while still being on his runner. The runner is working effectively as the dog stood up, walked towards me, drank water and went back to lie down again in the sun. The dog has a 5L bucket with water, which the dog could easily access. The carport area is fully closed on top and 3 sided which provides the dog with adequate protection against the weather elements. In the far left corner was what appeared to be an old carpenter for the dog to lie on, the photo I took is rather unclear and does not show it well. I am not of the opinion to force the owner to buy a kennel for the dog as this area is really well enclosed, even previously when it rained profusely the area where the dog was was dry.

The owner is still in compliance with the warning issued, and there are currently no APA contraventions.
