CHECKLISTS

General Report Comments: I was busy being proactive in the community of Chatsworth when someone called Lorenzo stopped me and told me that I need to go and do an inspection at the plot where I once confiscated that boerboel female. Lorenzo told me that the male boerboel that the owner has taken that time I confiscated the female boerboel is back and they also have another female boerboel, Lorenzo also told me that the dogs is underweight and does not seem that the person who is looking after the the plot has food for the dogs. According to Lorenzo he has not seen the owner of the plot for quite some time. I went to the plot and was met by Peter who stays on the plot but claims he is not working for the owner of the plot anymore. I asked Peter if I can see the dogs on the property and he did not want to give me access and told me that aren't any dogs on the property. Will follow up.
