General Report Comments: Upon arrival, no one appeared to be home as there was no response to my presence.

I observed the dog on a runner, approximately 12m long, with an attaching swivel to his collar. The owner used a strong rope instead of a chain. The dog was moving easily on the runner with no hinder. The appeared to be in good condition with no veterinary or health concerns observed.

I am satisfied in closing this case, as there are currently no APA contraventions observed.
