General Report Comments: Upon arrival, no one appeared to be home as there was initially no response to my presence.

The dogs came to the gate when I called them and the dog in question, Trigger, appeared to have gained weight. I looked at the photos taken first, and cross referencing the photos he has definitely gained weight. I also did not see any ticks on him.

I tried to call the owner twice, however his phone went to Voicemail. The neighbor residing at nr2 advised that they went to work and that he is not sure around what time they will return.

As I was about to leave, a lady who identified herself as Chante, residing at the back of the property approached me. Chante advised that Jolin informed her that I will come around today but apparently forgot to leave the veterinary report with her. Chante claimed that the dog was taken to Long Acres, and that they received a letter from the veterinarian, as I requested.

I asked Chante to inform Jolin that I will come back tomorrow morning, and that she must please ask Jolin to leave the letter with her this evening as she will be home tomorrow. She agreed.

I will come back tomorrow morning to see the veterinary report.
