General Report Comments: On arrival I met a young boy of between 12 and 15years on the street. He informed me that the owner of the horse is Brian Samuels and he works in Cape Town. The horse is tied with a long static rope to a tree. The horse's body condition is fair and acceptable. There was three other horses close to where this horse was but they were running loose. The young boy untied the horse and took it to property number 13 School street as he claimed that the Law Enforcement once took the horse to Atlantis. There is no welfare concern. I tried to contact the complainant but her phone was going to voice-mail
