General Report Comments: Upon arrival, no one appeared to be present as there was no response to my presence.

I observed 1x stallion that is free roaming inside a large camp, the camp also has an opening that enters into a large open veld. The horse was standing near the road where I parked and where the sheltered area is. I saw a large water grib which appears to be automated, the grib was full of water. I did not see any additional roughage provided, however there appears to be sufficient grazing available in the large veld.

The horse appears to be slightly underweight, but otherwise in fair condition. The hooves also appear to be trimmed recently.

I left a warning:

1. The horse appears to be abandoned, contact me within 24hrs.
