General Report Comments: Upon arrival, no one appeared to be home as there was no response to my presence.

As the property gate was open, I entered the property and knocked on the door, but no one responded.

I saw the dog tethered to the fence with a rope and an attaching chain. The length is approximately 4m. The dog has access to her kennel, water and a clean living area.

I saw a bundle of thick wire, which I can only assume is for the runner that they must install.

I will grant them this weekend and come by next week, as I assume they will install the runner over the weekend.
