General Report Comments: I saw 2x horses in the paddocks, both horses were up and there was not one lying. Water, food and shelter is available. I contacted the owner Alicia to ask her about the blankets on the horses. Alicia told me it is called fly busters. It protects the horses against fly bites and other insect bites, the material is lightweight and the horses can't overheat with them on. No welfare concerns were observed. I contacted the complainant and she was happy that we went out. NFA until further notice.
