Unknown,cow is tied with a rope.

General Report Comments: Spca received a call about a cow that is in bad condition. I responded to the call and went out to Chatsworth. Upon arrival I saw 1x brown X breed female cow on a open plot tied with a rope. There is water available. There was nobody with the cow. I asked the lady at 85 Hopefield street if she knows who the cow belongs to and she told me that she does not know who the cow belongs to, but she does see somebody every hour or so to come check up on the cow and to see if the cow still has water available. Body condition is acceptable and the cow is not busy dying. I drove in Hopefield street to see if I can found the owner but nobody seems to know who the cow belongs too. Will follow up .
