CHECKLISTS

General Report Comments: Mr Poznanovich came to our office in Darling to advise that he thinks a hen on the farm where he rents a cottage was raped by a person that was painting his house on the farm. There are 2 hens on the farm that is very tame and even comes into his house to eat niknaks. So they come to people very easily. He said that he saw the person named Lucien Figeland on Tuesday 21 January 2024 laying with the chicken on the grass and with his finger going in and out of the chicken. He had a very strange fixated expression on his face and he could see that Lucien Figeland had an erection. He said he called him into the house and he still had an erection. He said that he had a mild heart attack the Tuesday. On the Thursday he went to do some chores and when he returned he said that Lucien Figeland told him that there is something wrong with the chicken. When he went to the chicken he said the chicken's face was into the sand and was struggling to breath. He picked the chicken up and took her to her owner Sanja Steyn and when he handed the chicken to her he noticed that his t shirt was covered in blood and semen. The chicken died a while later in her arms. I asked him to do an affidavit for us in this regard.
