General Report Comments: The owner of the dogs contacted me after she got the warning and she explained that they did call auntie dot for help and I said auntie dot is not a vet. I advise her to surrender the dog because is suffering and she agreed and she said I must take the dog and I can ask her neighbor to sign she agreed and her son came and make a scene and I called the owner she didn't pick up the phone and I left because the property was full of people and they were starting to get angry and I left.
