Follow-Up Date:
Comments:	I arrived at the Qurbani site at about 08:45 and I had a small meeting with the farm owner Mr Michael Duckett and the Mufti Imam Hossion to discuss the slaughtering procedures. The Mufti went on to address the people in attendance do that they follow the rules. There was 35 bulls in the holding pens. The bulls where led into the holding pens the morning before the Qurbani as they were in a nearby camp close to the site. I stunned 33 bulls and they were all handled humanely. No prodders or sticks were used. The stun to bleed did not proceed 60 seconds. The bleed out time was 8 minutes. The two remaining bulls were released back into the farm. The facilities are well maintained and in good working condition. I did took some pictures and there was no contravention of the Animal Protection Act .
