General Report Comments: There is two dogs on this property. The male Pitbul is on the other side of the property as there is fencing which devide the property. The Pitbul is running loose inside the property and I observed a long static chain lying on the ground and Rogun informed me that the chain is meant for the Pitbul when the garden services people come once every fortnight as he will bite any persons that he doesn't know. The living environment is clean. Water, shelter and food observed. The dog sleeps inside the house though there is a dog kennel outside. The female dog is on the other side of the property and her body condition is fair and acceptable. There was no welfare concern
