General Report Comments: I was met by Loyalty who is the owner of the dog that was attacked by a person. Loyalty told me that his landlord hit his dog with a broom stick because according to the landlord the dog Bullet wanted to attack him. Loyalty does not have video or photographic evidence but he told me that he went to the police to open a case of animal abuse. The dog Bullet is in acceptable condition and no open wounds were observed on the dog. Loyalty and Marina who is Loyalty's employer told me that the dog was seen by the Vredenburg animal hospital who comes to Hopefield on a Tuesday to be checked out. Water, food and shelter is available. NFA until further notice.
