General Report Comments: There was no people at this property and the dog was chocking from the entangled chain. I went inside the property as i could not leave the dog like that. The dog was on a short chain of less than 50 centimeters attached to a steel pole which was on the ground and the pole was attached to a lemon tree. There was no shelter available for the dog and it was raining. The dog did not have a collar. The water bowls were empty. The dog's body conditon is fair and acceptable. I issued a warning. The owner contacted the Spca and i explained the walfare concerns that i observed and what needs to be done before they get their dog back. The owner promised to rectify the problem today as he is scared the skollies may break in if they see no dog at the property.
