Comments:	On my arrival, the complainant took me to where the dog it was, I got there I found the dog with its owner, the dog appeared limping on its front right leg, according to the owner, he said the kids heat the dog with a golf stick and it's been about 3 weeks since the incident happened, he never took the dog to the veterinary for treatment, I educated and convinced the owner to surrender the dog to the spca, he then surrendered the dog and took it to the spca Darling.
