General Report Comments: On my arrival, I was welcomed by Mrs Nicolette Greeff the owner of the animals and as well as the Mother of the complainant.
I observed three dogs, fox terrier breed female of 9 months named Aria, and a male Doberman breed of 6 years named Ben, and a female pitbul breed of 11 yeas named Daezy, and X4 calves both males of 7 months, all the animals in the premises was physically looking good in condition with no veterinary problems or health concerns.
The living environment was cleaned, the shelter was available available, water was available, sufficient space was available(the size of the plot is 8 Hector).
According to the complainant, she said her mother does not look after the animals, she then decided to take a border collie breed dog with her to her house because her mother is not looking after the dogs well, while, her mother on my arrival she said that her daughter stole a border collie from her, therefore, this is a family dispute.
