General Report Comments: On my arrival, I went to the house no 12 Deon Adams street in Riebeek West, I was welcomed by Mrs Hannelie Baron, I observed a brown female boerbol of N2 years named Siba, the dog was put in a camp of sufficient space with water available, Siba appeared physically looking good in condition, living environment was cleaned, and she was put in a camp for temporary only one day because there was people working cleaning the other part in the premises and they are scared of the digs. No animal welfare concerns observed.I educated the owner about sterilization.
