General Report Comments: The dog has an eye infection and on arrival I met Rochelle Naidoo who informed me that the dog is hers and she admitted that she does not have the money for vet treatment. I advised her that I was going to issue her with a 24hour warning to take the dog to the vet and failure to do so will leave me with no choice but to obtain a warranty and lay cruelty charges against her. She then informed me that she was a student and does not want to get involved in legal matters so she surrendered the dog named Max. I explained to Rochelle before she signed the Admission form that the document she is about to sign is a legal document and she wont get the dog back after signing. She loaded Max into the SPCA bakkie and signed. There is no animals left on the property. Dog was surrendered admisson E2862.
