General Report Comments: On my arrival in Moorreesburg house no.2 church street, I was welcomed by Mrs Anneke Steyn the owner of the animals, I observed 3 dogs and 1 cat in the premises, water was available, food for the dogs was available, shelter was available as the main house with dogs door access into the house, living environment was cleaned. No veterinary problems or health concerns observed.

We then went to the camp in Constantia street a little bit outside Moorreesburg township within Moorreesburg area, there I observed 2 male castrated horses, both brown/black/white in colour, the horses were kept in a camp of enough sufficient space, water was available, food was available, shelter was not available, living environment was cleaned, there was a horse box inside the camp, the horses looked physically good in condition with no veterinary problems or health concerns observed.

I issued the owner with a notice to comply to put adequate shelter for the horses, refer attached.
