General Report Comments: On my arrival doing door to door animal welfare inspection in Malmesbury illengulethu, as I was driving on Rolihlahla street, I saw 2 ladies slaughtering chickens, I then went to them, I kindly requested them to show me how are they slaughtering the chickens and why are they slaughtering. I observed 20 chickens confined between the wire diamond fence and the shack, out of 20 some were already slaughtered about 5 chickens, they Mrs Nosethu Ndabeni as the owner replied by saying they have a celebration t happen on Saturday in her house so that is why they are slaughtering chickens to be served as food meat.

They proceeded to show me the way they slaughtering the chickens and it was not done humanely, I observed the knives they were using was not sharp and good, they were not completely cutting of the chickens neck. I had to humanely slaughter all the remaining chickens for them, and I also educated them that in future they must buy sharp knives and practically they observed how I was slaughtering and that I show it should be done one stroke and holding the chicken wings together patted on its body.
