General Report Comments: Upon my arrival I was met by Ms. Cleophas who said that she is the owner of the dog in question called Max. I asked Ms. Cleophas if she has received my warnings and she said no, she only received one warning. Ms. Cleophas is a single working parent, she showed me the cable for the runner and the harness she has bought. Ms. Cleophas said that the person who knows Max will only be home this weekend as he works in Cape town, this person will install the runner and put the harness on Max. Ms. Cleophas asked me if I can give her time as she has now got the stuff and will only be able to do it over the weekend. I agreed to extend the time frame until Monday. I've explained to Ms. Cleophas if Max living conditions does not change by Monday that she will leave me with no other choice than to remove Max from her care. Will follow up.
