CHECKLISTS

General Report Comments: On my arrival, I found the property had no gate and I went inside the property unfortunately no one was available, and looking around there was no dog or even the puppies in the property, the property did not seemso have dog/s living inside. I did contacted the complainant to find out if the address is the correct address, but she did not answer my calls, later around 17h23 the complainant contacted me back and I explained to her the address she provided there is are no signs of dogs living in the property, she said she will go later to check and will give the correct address by contacting the office line again.
