General Report Comments: The owner has adhered to some of the issues on the warning. Zuzu's living area has been cleaned, but he keeps on taking his blankets out of the kennel. The owner also put the bare chain through a hose pipe so that the bare chain does not cause injury to Zuzu's neck and I also noticed that the static chain has been extended. I explained to Mrs. Sitite that although the chain has been extended Zuzu still needs to be put on a runner and she said yes, her husband is waiting for someone to bring him the wire. Will do a recheck.
