General Report Comments: I went to do a recheck to see if the owner has adhered to my warning. Upon arrival I hooted and called,but again no people were present. The previous warning was still in the gate where I left it. The dogs living conditions haven't changed and is still the same. I issued another warning W6384. I saw a man working in the garden across the street and went over,I asked the man if he won't do me a favour and give both warnings to the people across the street because it's seems that they haven't received the first warning as it was still in the gate where I placed it. The man who introduced himself as Vernon agreed and said he will make sure they get the warnings . Will follow up.
